

District Attorney Joseph D. Early, Jr.

Safe Schools Summit – Fall 2015

Working together with schools, law enforcement, and youth-serving agencies to maintain safe school environments

8 a.m. – 3 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 1, 2015

Worcester Technical High School,

1 Skyline Drive, Worcester

Featured speaker: Attorney Richard Cole

- Addressing Allegations of Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assaults of K-12 Students
- Complying with Civil Rights Laws When Applying Student Discipline Under DESE Regulations

Other presentations

- Restorative Practices: Understanding Restorative Practices as an effective approach to building community, responding to harm, and reducing conflict in schools.

Cate Woolner, MA, co-founder in 1985 of The Mediation and Training Collaborative

Kara McLaughlin, MA, has worked at the Gill Montague Community School Partnership

- Friending and Finding Identity: How Social Media Affects Adolescent Health
Examining the effects of social media on the physical, mental, and social health of adolescents

Kristelle Lavalley, Content Strategist, Center on Media & Child Health,

Boston Children's Hospital